 - Former President & CEO, Magma Technology, Inc., San Diego, California
- Former VP & General Manager, Ingram Micro, Inc. (NYSE: IM), Santa Ana, California
- Former VP, Intelligent Electronics, Inc. (NASDAQ: IE), Greenwood Village, Colorado

On November 3, 1981, Tim's beloved big brother, Michael, was kidnapped and beaten over several hours by four petty criminals in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Three of the merciless assailants drove his defenseless brother to the Rocky Mountains and murdered Michael in one of the most gruesome murders in the history of Colorado. In honor of his brother and mindful every day is a precious blessing, Tim is a compelling national voice in the crime victims' rights movement:

- Chairman & President, National Justice Project, Alexandria, Virginia
- Past President, Arizona Voice for Crime Victims, Phoenix, Arizona
- Past President, National Organization for Victims Assistance (NOVA), Alexandria, Virginia
- Former National Trustee, Parents of Murdered Children (POMC), Cincinnati, Ohio
- Former Appointee, Crime Victims Compensation Board of Maricopa Co., Phoenix, Arizona

Fueled by decades of Roman Catholic inspiration nurtured by the Society of Jesus (aka "The Jesuits"), Tim faithfully serves several non-profit causes in a passionate effort to be a man for others:

- Knight of Magisterial Grace, Order of Malta (aka Knights of Saint John), Rome, Italy
- Vice President, Phoenix Location, Western Association, Order of Malta, Phoenix, Arizona
- Board of Directors, Holy Family Hospital of Bethlehem Foundation, Washington D.C.
- Advisory Board, Duke University Catholic Center, Durham, North Carolina
- Board of Regents, Augustine Institute, Greenwood Village, Colorado
- Legate, Legatus of the Archdiocese of Denver, Denver, Colorado

- Former Board Member, Arizona Commerce Authority (ACA), Phoenix, Arizona
- Former Vice Chairman, Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry, Phoenix, Arizona
- Former Senior Deputy, Colorado Flood Recovery (dba Colorado United), Denver, Colorado
- Former Chairman, Make-A-Wish Foundation of Arizona, Phoenix, Arizona
- Former City Councilman and Mayor Pro Tempore, Santa Clara, California

Tim graduated from Santa Clara University with a Bachelor of Science in Political Science in 1985. He was voted Most Inspirational Player on SCU's nationally-ranked Division II football team. Tim graduated from Duke University's Fuqua School of Business with a Master of Business Administration, and was selected by his Global Executive classmates to give their class valedictory address in 2003.

Tim and his wife Mary Frances fell in love at Santa Clara University. They have been together 31 years, and married 28 years. Their youngest daughter Rachel is a member of the Duke University Class of 2019. Their oldest daughter Alicia and two grandchildren Scarlett and Michael live in Thornton, Colorado. They have two ever-faithful Labradors: Buddy and Phoenix.
